

XM and Sirrius are providing a service that has been lacking for years now: music, news, traffic and weather when listeners want it. NAB has no right to interfere on an opportunity they could have pioneered years ago!